EARLIER COURT ACTION

On September 29, 2011, the Honorable Barbara M.G. Lynn reduced the offender's formal payment schedule regarding the $3,339,095.95 restitution to $50 per month, based on self-reported information provided by the offender..

On June 6, 2012, a Report on Offender Under Supervision was submitted to the Honorable Barbara M.G. Lynn, advising of the offender's untruthful nature with regards to financial information he previously provided. At that time, a transfer of jurisdiction to the Southern District of Texas was also requested.

On June 22, 2012, jurisdiction was transferred to the Southern District of Texas.

On June 12, 2013, the offender's request for early termination was denied by the Honorable Kenneth M. Hoyt.

NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

| Violation Number | Nature of Noncompliance   |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1                       | FAILURE TO PAY RESTITUTION (SPECIAL CONDITION): The offender has been unable to make restitution payments since he suffered a stroke on January 15, 2014. He was recently released from the hospital, has difficulty walking, cannot speak, and cannot utilize the right side of his body. As a result, he has been unable to work, his net monthly cash flow has decreased significantly, and he and his wife are struggling to pay their monthly bills. It should be noted that prior to his stroke, the offender was compliant with the original Court-ordered payment schedule of $500 per month. The present restitution balance is $3,228,294.21. |

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

It is respectfully recommended that the Court take no revocation action at this time in response to the offender's noncompliance with the restitution payment schedule. This U.S. Probation Officer has met with the offender and his wife at their residence, reviewed medical documents, and reviewed the family's household bills. This Probation Officer will continue to monitor the offender's medical condition and financial situation; and should his condition improve, he will begin making payments again. However, his prognosis is speculative, and his term of supervised release expires on June 10, 2014. It is respectfully requested that the Court allow the case to terminate as scheduled, with no Court action being sought. The Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office will monitor the offender's payments following his release from supervision.

Approved:

Michael G. Oliveri, Supervising
U.S. Probation Officer

Respectfully submitted:
